

Marvellous Middle

We had a fantastic day with Andy he travelled through time to greet us as a real cave man!

We learnt all about the Stone Age man and how he lived. Andy taught us about early man and their movement across the world. We listened to a fabulous caveman story about fire! We played caveman games and enjoyed taking part in drama activities. In the afternoon we experienced charcoal drawing and ink printing to create our own cave paintings of Stone Age beasts.

